

Vittorio Volontè – Executive Director

Born in Milan (Mi), on October 10, 1979.

Vittorio Volontè obtained in 1998 the title of agrotechnical expert at the Professional Technical Institute for Agriculture and the Environment "Giordano dell'Amore" - Vertemate con Minoprio (CO) and attended the Executive training course, and obtained the relative certification, in "Real Estate Business Strategies & Financial Models" at SDA Bocconi School of Management. He is enrolled since 2009 in the register of real estate brokers of Como n.1902. From 2001 to 2007 he was employed at Montipò Trading SpA, carrying out various duties, namely sales manager of owned properties, drafting of sales lists, purchase proposals and preliminary contracts, management of marketingcampaigns, coordination of real estate agencies and supervision and coordination of professionals during the development of the construction site. In the period 2008 - 2011 he held the role of sole director of Urban Living Real Estate Srl, a real estate brokerage company with a focus on new residential constructions. From 2012 to 2017, he held the role of sole director of the company Vidue Srl (later Emire Real Estate Srl), a real estate brokerage company with a focus on new residential constructions. Since 2007 he has continuously carried out entrepreneurial activity in the real estate sector, participating in and managing residential real estate development operations.