

Eugenio D'Amico - Chairman of the Board of Statutory Auditors

Born in Rome (RM), January 21, 1965.

Eugenio D'Amico graduated in 1991 in Economics and Commerce from the “Luiss Guido Carli” University. He has been a full professor of Business Economics at the University of Roma Tre since 2008. He carries out business consultancy, valuations, extraordinary transactions, and financial statements in the public and private sector also in the context of judicial proceedings. He is an expert in arbitration, ritual and irrational judgments, as sole arbitrator, party arbitrator, President of the Board, and also as Technical Consultant. He conducts activities relating to the committees referred to in the Legislative Decree 231/2001. In particular, regarding corporate planning, restructuring, and/or reorganization, in the last two years, he has held roles related to financial restructuring activities, Governance activities in companies undergoing restructuring, as well as evaluations and opinions for companies undergoing restructuring.